Home Consortium commences trading on the ASX on a conditional and deferred settlement basis

Home Consortium (HomeCo) is pleased to advise that at 1.00pm on Monday 14th October 2019 it will commence trading on the ASX on a conditional and deferred settlement basis.

HomeCo will trade under the ASX code: HMC.ASX

“The commencement of trading today on the ASX is the culmination of months of hard work by our management team and advisers. I would like to personally thank them all for their dedication and hard work in achieving today’s milestone” said David Di Pilla Executive Chairman of HomeCo.

We would like to also thank our Joint Lead Managers and Co-Managers for helping us generate strong investor interest in the HomeCo Initial Public Offering.

We are pleased to welcome some of Australia’s leading property and retail groups to our share register, through participation in the cornerstone process of the IPO.

HomeCo looks forward to a bright and exciting future as an ASX listed company. Directors and Management will work hard to deliver sustainable returns for our shareholders”.

About Home Consortium

HomeCo is an internally managed Australian property group focused on ownership, development and management. HomeCo is built on a platform of big brands and hyper-convenience, with each centre anchored by leading brands backed by some of Australia’s most successful property development and retail organisations including predominantly national retailers spanning daily needs, leisure and lifestyle and services enterprises.

By the end of 2019, HomeCo’s Portfolio will consist of 21 completed centres and 9 centres under development across four states (VIC, QLD, NSW and WA).
